FREE WORKSHOPS FOR STUDENTS TRANSITIONING TO HIGH SCHOOL

Transitioning to High School for 8th Grade Students

PLEASANTON, Calif. — The City of Pleasanton's FREE Community Education Series continues with Transitioning into High School on Wednesday, April 27, 2016 from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Pleasanton Public Library, located at 400 Old Bernal Ave.

Students and families of 8th grade students are invited to a panel discussion about the successful transition from middle school to high school. This workshop will provide information, tools and resources for students and families of 8th grade students. The panel will include high school students, high school parents and an administrator from the Pleasanton Unified School District. Students and families will have their questions answered regarding the social experience of moving on to high school, work load and homework, friendships, preparing for college and much more!

The event is FREE and registration is recommended. Go to pleasantonfun.com and enter course code #61607 to register. For more information, please email info@ptownlife.org or call 925.931.5359.

The Community Education Series is a monthly event that takes place throughout the school year with workshops geared towards adults and students in the community. The Series was developed by the City of Pleasanton Community Services staff in conjunction with the Pleasanton Youth Commission to meet the goals outlined in the Youth Master Plan (2010).
