GINGERBREAD PRESCHOOL CELEBRATING 50 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

Join the Celebration on Saturday, October 21

PLEASANTON, Calif. — The City of Pleasanton’s Gingerbread Preschool is celebrating its 50th Anniversary with a carnival on Saturday, October 21 from noon–4 p.m. at Gingerbread Preschool and the Amador Valley Community Park. The preschool is located at 4333 Black Ave.

All current students, alumni, family members and the community are invited to the event to celebrate 50 years of learning through play. The event will include carnival games, food truck mafia, DJ, magic show, face painting, story time and more.

To commemorate the occasion, Friends of Gingerbread Preschool will be offering 6” tiles to purchase and decorate at the anniversary event with Color Me Mine staff on hand to assist. Tiles will become part of the 50th anniversary commemorative tile wall to be mounted in the lobby for Gingerbread Preschool.

Tiles will be sold for $35 each or multiple tiles for $30 each through the Friends of Gingerbread nonprofit group. Event information and links to purchase tiles are available at gingerbreadpreschool.org.
